Corner Brook Port to Welcome Seven Seas Navigator August 22, 2017

CORNER BROOK – The Seven Seas Navigator will make a previously unscheduled visit to Corner Brook on Tuesday, August 22 from 9 am to 6 pm. It will be the inaugural call for this ship and the first time since 2010 that a vessel from Regent Seven Seas Cruises has visited Corner Brook.

The cruise ship, which has a capacity of 490 passengers and 325 crew, has made a change to its 15 day Montreal to Reykjavik itinerary which departs Montreal on August 18. The ship will call on Quebec City and Saguenay and spend a day at sea prior to arrival in Corner Brook on Tuesday. Following that it visits Saint-Pierre and Miquelon and St. John's before travelling across the Atlantic to several ports in Greenland and concluding the voyage in Reykjavik, Iceland on September 1.

This additional call brings the total number of cruise calls to 12 for this season. Three vessels have already visited and eight more are scheduled for September and October with the next one, Silver Whisper, scheduled for Monday, September 4.
