Cruise Season Concludes with 4 ships in One Week

CORNER BROOK – Beginning on Sunday, September 27, the Port of Corner Brook will welcome four cruise ships in a one week period. This will be the busiest week of the 2015 cruise season, which concludes on Saturday, October 3.

The Albatros, from the German cruise line Phoenix Reisen, will arrive at 8:00 a.m. on Sunday morning. The ship, which arrives from Bonne Bay, will remain in port until 5 p.m. and move along to Havre-Saint-Pierre, Quebec. The vessel can accommodate up to 830 passengers and 340 crew and is travelling on a 44 Day Indian Summer in the New World itinerary.

On Monday, September 27, Corner Brook will welcome the Caribbean Princess to port for the first time. This huge cruise ship, which carries more than 3,000 passengers and 1,200 crew, will be the largest to visit Corner Brook this year. The Caribbean Princess is scheduled to be in port from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. as part of a 10 day Classic Canada & New England trip which departed from New York on September 21 and concludes in Quebec City on October 1.

The Marco Polo will return to Corner Brook for its second call of the season on Thursday, October 1. The ship, which has capacity for 906 passengers and 354 crew, is scheduled to arrive at 9 a.m. and will stay in port overnight, departing at 10 a.m. on Friday, October 2. The ship will travel to L'Anse Aux Meadows after departing Corner Brook and will then head across the Atlantic Ocean where the 34 Day Commemorative Voyage to Canada will conclude on October 11.

The final call of the season is scheduled for Saturday, October 3. The Saga Sapphire, operated by UK-based company Saga Holidays, will arrive at 8 a.m. and spend 8 hours in port. The Saga Sapphire is on an 11 Day Canada in the Fall itinerary which is visiting numerous ports in Eastern Canada. Saturday is the inaugural call of the Saga Sapphire and will be the first time a Saga vessel will call at Corner Brook Port.

Corner Brook Port Corporation has a total of 11 cruise ship visits scheduled for 2015. A complete list of scheduled calls for 2015 can be found at www.cornerbrookport.com.
