Busiest Week of 2016 Cruise Season

CORNER BROOK – This will be the busiest week of the Corner Brook cruise season, with three ships scheduled to visit the Port of Corner Brook.

The Oceania Regatta will return to Corner Brook for its second call of the 2016 season on Tuesday, October 4. Carrying just under 700 passengers and approximately 400 crew, the vessel will arrive in port at noon and is scheduled to depart at 9:00 p.m. The Regatta is visiting the Canada New England region as part of a 12 day Fall Medley cruise which departed from Montreal on September 30 and concludes in New York on October 12.

On Wednesday, October 5, Corner Brook will welcome the largest cruise ship to visit this year, the Caribbean Princess. The Princess Cruises ship, which carries more than 3,000 passengers and 1,200 crew, will be returning to Corner Brook after making its inaugural call in September 2015. The ship is due to arrive in Corner Brook at 8:00 a.m. and will spend a full day in port, departing at 5:00 p.m. The Caribbean Princess is travelling on a Classic Canada and New England itinerary from Quebec City to New York.

The cruise ship Amadea, from the German cruise line Phoenix Reisen, will arrive in Corner Brook at 8:00 a.m. on Friday morning. The ship, which can accommodate up to 830 passengers and 340 crew, is spending 44 days travelling the East coast of the United States and Canada. The Amadea last visited Corner Brook in September 2014.

The final call of the 2016 season is scheduled for Tuesday, October 18. The complete 2016 cruise ship schedule can be found at www.cornerbrookport.com.
