Five Cruise Ship Visits Scheduled for September

CORNER BROOK – The Port of Corner Brook will welcome five cruise ships during September. Seabourn Quest will kick start the month, making its inaugural call on Monday, September 5. The ship, which has capacity for 450 passengers and up to 330 crew, will visit Corner Brook as part of a 38 day itinerary entitled “Commonwealth and Viking Route Exploration.” The vessel is scheduled to arrive in Corner Brook at 8 a.m. and depart at 5 p.m.

On Thursday, September 15, the Boudicca from Fred Olsen Cruise Lines will make its inaugural call to Corner Brook. The ship will be carrying approximately 880 passengers and 339 crew and is visiting numerous ports in Atlantic Canada as part of a “Rugged and Rural Canada” tour. The Boudicca is scheduled to be in port from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The vessel Marco Polo, operated by Cruise & Maritime Voyages, will call Corner Brook as part of a “Canada in the Fall” itinerary on Saturday, September 17. Over 900 passengers and 350 crew are expected to arrive at 8 a.m. and stay in port until 3 p.m. The Marco Polo first visited Corner Brook during the 2015 season, making two overnight calls.

A ship from the SilverSea Cruises fleet, the Silver Whisper, will arrive in port at 9 a.m. on Monday, September 19. This will be the fourth year in a row that the Silver Whisper has visited Corner Brook in mid-September. The ship will bring approximately 382 passengers and 300 crew for a full day in port, departing at 6 p.m. The Silver Whisper’s itinerary is a 17 day voyage from Southampton, UK to Montreal, Quebec.

The final cruise ship scheduled to call in September is the Oceania Regatta (Oceania Cruises) which is due in port from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, September 26. The Regatta, which carries 684 passengers and 400 crew, has been to Corner Brook numerous times and is scheduled to call on Corner Brook three times this season. Regatta’s first call of the season is part of a 12 day “Accent on Autumn” cruise which departs New York on September 18 and ends in Montreal on September 30.

There are four cruise ship visits scheduled in October. Oceania Regatta returns on October 4 and 18, Caribbean Princess (Princess Cruise Lines) will visit on October 5 and Phoenix Reisen’s ship Amadea will call on October 7. A complete list of scheduled calls for the 2016 season can be found at www.cornerbrookport.com.
